TEAM TALK

- ✓ Why is it so difficult for us as men to love our children unconditionally? Why is it in a sense natural that we should love them unconditionally?

- ✓ When are great times to build your kids identity as special creative works of God, as deeply beloved and redeemed sons and daughters of the Most High God?

- ✓ How can you and your wife “get on the same page” about the type of person you both are trying to build/coach? How do parents work together to build their kids?

- ✓ If you have time, talk about how your kids are different from you in terms of temperament or skills. What have you learned about your children?
