¹² Not that I have already obtained it or have already become perfect, but I press on so that I may lay hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus.

¹³ Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, ¹⁴ I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵ Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, have this attitude; and if in anything you have a different attitude, God will reveal that also to you; ¹⁶ however, let us keep living by that same standard to which we have attained.

¹⁷ Brethren, join in following my example, and observe those who walk according to the pattern you have in us.

¹⁸ For many walk, of whom I often told you, and now tell you even weeping, that they are enemies of the cross of Christ, ¹⁹ whose end is destruction, whose god is their appetite, and whose glory is in their shame, who set their minds on earthly things. ²⁰ For our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ; ²¹ who will transform the body of our humble state into conformity with the body of His glory, by the exertion of the power that He has even to subject all things to Himself.

TEAM WORK

- Authenticity: Do Christians ever attain to sinless perfection in this life? What does the Bible say? (Romans 7:14-25; 1 John 1:9, 3:2)
- How does Grace enable us to become humble and confident at the same time?
- Tenacity: What does it really mean to “forget” what is behind? How is the best way to “reach forward?” What is the prize that we Christian men ought to be pursuing?
- Teachability: Who are some good role models you’ve had in your life and how have they helped you grow as a man? How can even bad models help us positively grow?
