TEAM TALK

1. Do some honest talk we're friends around these tables: What characterizes your thinking most of the time? A work oriented mind, a comfort oriented mind, a me oriented thinking, an easily distracted mind, a rigorous mind, etc. Know yourself!
2. How could these traits of great thinking be used as a grid on a daily basis to filter and analyze our thinking, and keep us on the right internal/mental path? Try to play out some scenarios where you can make this content actionable!
