TEAM TALK

- Talk around your table about which of the above points stood out to you as the most important. Why to you was that one so important?
- What key life action steps must be taken for each point above? Go through them quickly and suggest how you can move to fulfill that key characteristic.
- This week find some time and do a self-evaluation: Am I moving in the right direction in life so that I am on the path to finishing well? How could I use this teaching to guide my thinking for 2024? Have I ever committed myself to finishing well?
